CALL FOR SESSIONS INVITATION

U.A.E. teachers and administrators, Zayed University faculty, and Ministry of Education and Youth personnel are invited to submit session proposals for the Conference. Sessions will be approximately 90 minutes long and will address the following Conference theme statement:

Academic standards establish what K-12 students need to know and be able to do. Related to standards discussions are their development, implementation, and assessment as well as their relationship to critical thinking and learner-centered outcomes. The role that standards play in encouraging best practice in the teaching of Primary Education, English, Arabic and Islamic Studies, Social Sciences, Mathematics, Science, Reading, and Instructional Technology must be examined.

The Conference audience will be U.A.E. K-12 teachers and administrators and Ministry of Education and Youth personnel. Some sessions will be offered in Arabic. All sessions will include some Arabic translation.

The Conference aims to help participants use innovative methods to teach to world-class standards.
