

ATTESTATION/ NOTARISATION OF DOCUMENTS

All documents being submitted to any UAE authority must be attested by the Department of Foreign Affairs in the country where the document originates.

Please contact the Department of Foreign Affairs & Trade in the State where your document was issued for information about this procedure or alternatively view their respective website for up to date information on how to obtain the required attestation/notarisation. Please note fees apply for attestation services and also courier costs may be applicable for the safe return of documents.
