

14th Annual Undergraduate Research Conference on Applied Computing

Zayed University Dubai, UAE

Nov 23 & 24, 2022

The 14th Annual Undergraduate Conference on Applied Computing (ZURC 2022) aims to provide a forum for students and faculty members to present their research ideas and interact with other young researchers from educational institutions across the Arab world, expert faculty, and leaders from the IT industry. Therefore, if you are an undergraduate student working on a final year project in any computing field, you are encouraged to submit one-page abstract for a lightning talk, live demo, poster presentation, or a full paper to a special track. All submissions will be reviewed by expert faculty and feedback will be provided to authors. In addition to student presentations, the conference program will feature invited presentations from academia and industry. Join us to present your project and expand your professional network.

Conference Format

Submissions are welcome in four categories. Participants will have a chance to get published in the e-book of abstracts or IEEE Xplore and get a chance to win one of the presentation awards.

- Lightning Presentations: present your research project in a short oral presentation style.
- Live Demos: present a novel application, system, or tool you have fully developed – a live demo of how it works.
- Poster Presentations: present your project in an exhibit-style setting with a poster.
- Special Tracks: submit a full paper to a special track. See the conference website for details.

Submission Guidelines

Prospective authors are invited to submit a one-page abstract describing their final year project or ongoing research project work; OR a full paper to a special track. Please follow the following guidelines:

- Use the templates available on the conference website for your submission.
- All submissions must be made online.
- Please check the conference website (<https://www.zu.ac.ae/main/en/urc2022>) for further instructions.

Publication

ZURC2022 Abstracts will be published in the URC2022 e-book of abstracts, and full papers in IEEE Xplore.
